NEW FREIGHT RATE TO HURT STOCK MEN

Farm Bureau Federation Sends Out Call For Cattle Raisers
To Get On the Job

The Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation is sending out notices to its farmer friends of a heavy increase in freight rates on livestock which is to go into effect June 1st. The bulletin is headed "Read this and this and then get busy and act." The bulletin gives a comparison of rates on livestock from various points to Louisville and what the new rates will be. The bulletin says in part:

A new schedule of rates on livestock for all territory south of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi river has just been issued by the railroads, effective June 1st, 1922. These rates will be in operation on all shipments of livestock from all points in Kentucky, regardless of whether the shipment is wholly within the state or to a point outside the state. Every producer of livestock in Kentucky will therefore, be affected by these rates.

The increase of freight charges on livestock to the Louisville Stock Yards alone will mean an increase of over $600,000 annually which will have to be paid by farmers who ship to Louisville. There is no way of estimating what the total figures will be to Kentucky farmers if we attempt to include shipments from Kentucky farms to Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago and other points.

The Southeastern Livestock Association with which the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation is cooperating, has filed a petition with the Inter-State Commerce Commission at Washington, requesting them to suspend these rates pending a hearing so that those interested in these new rates may be given a chance to show that they are confiscatory and unnecessary and that they will seriously cripple the livestock industry in the southern states.

In order that we may show the Inter-State Commerce Commission that the farmers of Kentucky are united in demanding a suspension of these rates, we request every Farm Bureau in Kentucky to send telegrams to C. C. McChord, chairman Inter-State Commerce Commission, Washington, and to both of our U. S. Senators at Washington and to the Congressmen from their respective districts, requesting that Live-Stock Tariff B No. 1, Inter-State Commerce Commission No. A-348, effective June 1st, which will increase all rates on livestock south of the Ohio river approximately 87 per cent be suspended and that the farmers and producers be granted a hearing before same is permitted to become operative.

Telegrams should be sent by the County Farm Bureau, from individual farmers, all banks, livestock shippers and everyone else interested in this matter. Be sure to send plenty of telegrams, the more the better.

The bulletin also says the Voight Filled Milk Bill H. R. 8086 is up for action in the House of Representatives next week at Washington. You are urged to telegraph your Congressman to actively support this bill. Several states have prohibited the sale of Filled Milk and Kentucky will soon be made a dumping ground for this substitute for real milk. Our cows cannot compete with coconut cows from the Pacific Isles.

Winchester Men Lose In Big Oil Suit

Louisville, Ky., May 8—Muller P. Kelly, trustee for himself and a number of former associates in the Great Lakes Petroleum Company, obtained a judgment for $120,000 in Judge Edwards' court today against George W. Owens, W. W. Sharpley, Guy D. French and H. H. Moore. The judgment is on two notes of $60,000 each, executed July 31, 1921.

Ape Mother Caught

San Francisco, May 8—Nellie, a large ape which returned to the wilds by escaping and fleeing to Sator Forest, was behind bars again today at Ocean Beach as the result of her mother love and the strategy of Miss Florence Naida, animal expert, who used Buster, Nellie's 9-month-old baby, as a decoy to trap the ape in a thicket. Buster was put in an open cage transported to the forest but Nellie refused to enter. Miss Naida took Buster and maneuvering skillfully finally drew Nellie into the cage.

2,099 IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS HERE SUNDAY

"Go-to-Sunday School Day" proved a tremendous success in Richmond Sunday.

Old timers were seen sneaking into the classes who probably hadn't been there for a year or so. All got a hearty welcome and were made to feel that it was good to be there.

The First Christian school led with attendance records, of course. The enrollment there showed 850; First Baptist counted exactly 400; Methodist had 301; First Presbyterian 275; Calvary Baptist reports 150, and the Second Christian 123, thus showing a grand total of 2,099 in Sunday school in Richmond Sunday.

At several of the Sunday schools the attendance taxed accommodations so heavily that classes had to be called off and special programs arranged. Supt. Douglas Chenault, of the First Baptist, provided a very interesting program with Profs. G. L. McClain and W. L. Jayne, of the Eastern Normal, as speakers.

At the First Christian church, the Sunday school celebrated the fourth anniversary of the coming of Dr. Hower W. Carpenter as pastor of the church by presenting him a handsome golf club. Other churches also had special programs.

GARRARD 'SHINER HELD IN $5,000

Rolly Simpson, white, of Broadus Branch, Garrard county, was given a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner W. S. Lawwill at Danville Saturday on a charge of conspiracy to operate a moonshine still. After hearing testimony of a number of witnesses Commissioner Lawwill found him guilty of operating the still and also of conspiracy with others to operate a still and fixed his bond at $5,000 to await trial at the Lexington term of federal court, June 12th.

Deputy Sheriff J. T. Hicks, of Lancaster, testified that he, John Montgomery, deputy marshal of Lancaster, and Allen Morris, deputy sheriff, went to Simpson's home, about six miles from Lancaster last Saturday morning and found a 20 gallon iron kettle, a furnace, and 50 gallons of mash in a hollow forty yards from Simpson's house. In an upstairs room in the house the officers also found five half-gallon jars of full moonshine and in the barn behind the house a half-gallon jar of malt. The furnace where the still had been operated, it was brought out, was located on the property of the Willis Turner heirs, adjoining Simpson's place. Arthur Miller, a neighbor of Simpson, said Simpson had admitted to him that he owned the still and was operating it but had promised to remove it from that section.

BURLEY GROWERS TO GET ALL MONEY SOON

All Pooled Tobacco Expected To Be Sold Soon and Payments
Made To Members

Lexington, Ky., May 8—The payment to be made to burley tobacco growers May 20 will be followed by a third payment when the entire holdings of the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association are sold. Just when this will be said to be problematical but President J. C. Stone has pointed out the fact that the crop of 1921 is the shortest since the cut-out of 1908 and the government reports required of manufacturers show that their holdings are less than a year ago. President Stone has had many inquiries for the redried leaf held by the association and has sold some of it. Then, inquiries have come from as far away as Denmark, a representative of a Copenhagen tobacco concern having called at the office of the association the past week.

Three and one-half million pounds of tobacco have been added to the amount which the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association will handle for growers of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia in 1922 as a result of additions to the number of contract signers since March 1. Assistant Chief of the Field Service Division William Collins, said Saturday that 1,250 growers have been added since March 1, and that in many instances the signatures were voluntary and without any solicitation on the part of the workers for the association.

Secretary H. Lee Earley was busy the past week signing the checks to growers which will be sent out May 20. There are about 75,000 of these checks, including landlords, tenants, banks to which growers have assigned their certificates as security for loans, and a few who have bought certificates from growers. Secretary Earley uses a machine in signing these checks which permits him to sign five of them at one operation, but he still will have to sign his name 15,000 times before the checks will be ready to send to the directors who will distribute them to the growers.

Sales Report Not Required

Frankfort, Ky., May 8—The Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association does not have to make monthly reports of its sales to the Commissioner of Agriculture, Attorney General Chas. I. Dawson ruled today. He held that only warehouses, where auction sales of tobacco are held, are required to report under the law. Under this ruling only a comparatively small part of the burley tobacco crop of Kentucky will be listed in public reports. These reports gave the price at which the tobacco was sold for growers, dealers and on resale, the total amount paid and the average per pound.

MRS. HANGER LOSES RELATIVE IN DANVILLE

Mrs. Harry B. Hanger, Jr., was called to Danville Saturday night by the death of her relative Isaac Shelby, who passed away at the Boyle County Hospital after a lengthy illness. He was 51 years of age. His death came as a great shock to his many friends who were unaware of his critical condition. For many years he had made his home at Junction City where he was engaged in the real estate business. Only recently he had returned from Hot Springs, where he had gone for his health.

He is survived by one brother, Warren Shelby, of New Mexico, a half-sister, Deaconess Laura Calloway, of Charlotte, N. C., a sister-in-law, Mrs. Jas. D. Shelby of Danville, and four nieces—Sara, Laura, Jane and Rebecca Shelby, of Danville.

The funeral services were held at the Episcopal church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Bellevue cemetery, from the home of Mrs. James D. Shelby, in Danville.

Miss Fannie McGaughey, 16, married her step grandfather at Bardstown after a two-days' courtship.

AFTER REED'S SCALP IN SENATORIAL RACE

St. Louis, Mo., May 8—Referring to United States Senator James A. Reed as "a marplot," former President Wilson in a letter to former governor Lon V. Stevens, it was made public today, asked the defeat of the Missouri senator to "redeem the reputation of the democratic party."

The letter was in reply to one written by the former governor, referring to a letter Wilson wrote recently to the St. Louis Globe Democrat, attacking Reed. It was Wilson's third letter on the subject of the democratic nomination for United States Senator sought by Reed and Breckinridge Long, former third assistant secretary of state.

In his letter to Stevens Wilson said: "I am glad to be sustained in my judgment of Reed by your own closer knowledge of him and I shall hope and confidently expect to see him repudiated by the democrats at the primary. Certainly Missouri can not afford to be represented by such a marplot and it might check the enthusiasm of democrats throughout the country if their comrades in Missouri should not redeem the reputation of the party by substituting for Reed a man of true breed of democratic principles."

The primary is August 1st

"When the Robins Come Again"

Washington, May 8—Senator Culberson, of Texas, today refused to see newspaper men to discuss the charges of Alexander E. Robertson, a British war veteran, that private detectives sought to get him out of the country because of his affection for Miss Mary Culberson, the senator's 21-year-old daughter. Friends said Mrs. Culberson is prostrated as a result of the story. Meanwhile, it is understood Miss Culberson has agreed with the family not to talk matrimony until the spring of 1923 at the earliest.

CARD FROM MR. PAYNE

In last Friday's issue of the Daily Register an article appeared that reflected upon the judges of the debate between Madison High School and Lagrange, held at Lexington last Thursday. We regret that the Daily Register was given a report that prompted such an article. This statement is made that the community may know that no one officially connected with the schools so far as we can learn, inspired the criticism which was made of the judges.

We want all to know that the Madison High School believes that a judge in a high school debate has the right to vote as his conscience dictates, whether we think his decision is right or wrong. We believe that he should not be subject to criticism for so doing. We further want the community to know that we are good losers and that we congratulate Lagrange upon their victory.

WEALTHY WOMAN JAILED IN DRY RAID

Harrodsburg, Ky., May 8—Mrs. Bess M. Gibson, of this county, was arrested here Saturday on a charge of bootlegging after officers in a search of her home had found forty gallons of moonshine whisky in fruit jars in a secret compartment under her bed.

John Banton, overseer for Mrs. Gibson, her daughter, Mrs. Otis Earringer, and son, Elmer Gibson, were also arrested. Mrs. Gibson's home is one of the show places of Mercer county and she is considered to be wealthy.

Officers found the whisky under a bed in a room on the second floor of the home in a compartment beneath the floor.

Seizure recently of a still on the Salt River led to an investigation resulting in the arrests. The officers said it was believed corn had been delivered from the Gibson farm to the still.

Mrs. Gibson was arrested ten years ago following the shooting of her husband. It was alleged at that time she was jealous of another woman. She was committed to an asylum but was released after a time. Her husband died four years ago.

PUSHIN TO RE- MODEL BUILDING

Todd & Sons, contractors, were awarded the contract over a large number of bidders for the remodeling of the second floor in the building occupied by Pushin's Fashion Shop. Work will begin on June 1 and rushed to completion.

It is the intention of the management to use this second floor for his millinery parlors and to install fixtures to accommodate other added lines in ready-to-wear for ladies and misses. In fact Mr. Pushin says it won't be long before he will offer to the people of this section a large department store similar to their big chain of stores in other Kentucky towns. He has been crowded for room since his opening in Richmond, and with this second floor addition he will be better able to display his large line of stock which he receives daily from the eastern markets. "Jack" is a hustler and has given to Richmond a ready-to-wear establishment that is surpassed by none even in the larger cities, and he is keeping a large sum of money in circulation here that formerly went to Lexington, Louisville and Cincinnati.
